Reward For Finder Of Lost Men

Earnest P. Walker, Inspector, Alaska Service, Bureau of Fisheries, in an interview with the Sentinel, states that the Bureau of Fisheries has authorized him to offer a reward of one hundred dollars for the recovery of anyone or all of the bodies of Reginald F. Irwin, Charles A. Clark, and Mike DeCosta, the missing men composing the party of the Francis R. leaving Ketchikan on October 9th, bound for the Chickamin River and of whom no trace has been found since. Mr. Walker also states that he has authority to announce that Dr. Fairfax Irwin, the father of Inspector Irwin, will pay one thousand dollars to anyone finding and returning his son alive.

Good Booster For The West Coast

Mr. A. L. Brown, a business man of Craig, arrived down from Juneau on the Alameda this afternoon. Mr. Brown will leave on the Dan tonight for his home, he is a good booster for the West Coast and states that about three hundred people will winter at Craig this season, and that his little city is enjoying very prosperous times.

J. H. McGehee Resigns From Co-operative

J. H. McGehee, who for the past two years has been at the head of the Alaska Co-Operative Fishing & Packing Co., tendered his resignations as Manager of that Company last week, and same took effect on the 30 of November. A. Jakovitz was elected to fill his place. Pete Behrs, also one of the directors of the Company, handed in his resignations last night and J. A. Peterson was appointed in his stead.

Hard Time Dance Was Good Time

The Hard Time Ball given last Thursday at the Rink turned out to be a very lively affair and everyone attending had a good time. The feature of the dance was the Orchestra, which owing to the professional ability of Ira Robertson, were Dressed Up, being made up in regular hard time apparel. The music furnished by the Wrangell Orchestra was good and Wrangell now certainly has a orchestra that is second to none.

A good show at the Wrangell Photoshow tonight.

Makes Shipment Of Ore From Bertha Mine

George Skelton made a trip over to the Bertha Mine, at St. Johns Harbor, on Zarembo last Saturday returning Tuesday and bringing back a ton of ore for the purpose of having a thorough test made of the rock. One half ton will be sent on the first boat to the Tacoma Smelter where it will be given an mill test and the other half ton will be sent to the plant of the Gastineau mining company at Thane near Juneau. Geo. has great faith in the property and the rock certainly looks good and the returns from the tests will be watched with interest.

Senator Makes Her First Call To Wrangell

The big liner Senator of the Pacific Steamship Company, arrived in port last Sunday evening, on her first trip to Southeastern Alaska. The Senator carried no passengers this trip owing to the fact that she had forty tons of dynamite aboard. She will take the place of the City of Seattle until such time as the vessel is again in shape to take the run.

Clair Snyder Patents A New Invention

Mr. Clair Snyder, son of Judge A. V. R. Snyder, and a former resident of Wrangell now residing at Dallas, Ore., has patented an invention which promises to make him famous as is heralded by an Oregon paper as follows: Mr. Snyder has many friends in Wrangell who will be pleased to hear of his success:

INVENTS EFFICIENCY CHART A. C. Snyder Determines Percentage of Accuracy Automatically.

It is just possible that a little time, energy and talent have conspired to make A. C. Snyder famous. Some time ago Mr. Snyder, who has been employed by the Oregon Power company for several years, tired of the task and waste of time necessitated by figuring out the percentage of accuracy after reading an electric light meter. He solved the situation by inventing or constructing, with pen, ink and ideas, a chart which automatically gives the percentage of accuracy. The chart is a simple circular design with a conglomeration of figures that would startle most any one except an engineer or electrician. By placing a straight edge on one spot, determined by the meter reader, and reading directly opposite on the chart the percentage of accuracy is automatically determined. The chart is on the order of the slide rule, or the old circular slide rule, and for his invention Mr. Snyder has received much praise from officials of the Oregon Power company, electrical engineers and large corporations that have inspected and used the chart. The contrivance is a great time-saver and from the favor with which it has been received may come into general use in the work for which it was designed.

Capt. Ed. Calkins Brings Home A Bride

Capt. Ed. Calkins certainly slipped one over on his friends when he arrived from the south on the Jefferson bringing home a bride. The young lady was formerly Miss Ethelwyn Pearson, of Chillicothe, Mo. The wedding is the ending of a romance started when Mr. Calkins met Miss Pearson at the home of his cousin while on a visit there. The wedding took place on Sunday evening, November 21st, 1915, in Chillicothe, Mo.

Ed. has been busy receiving the congratulations of his friends and the Sentinel joins in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

That the republican territorial convention will be held at Seward in March is regarded as a settled fact.

Reduction Made In Cable Tolls

The cable office have announced that beginning with today the night letter rate to Seattle will be reduced so that a fifty word message can be sent now, night letter, for the same consideration as a day message of ten words, or $1.60. This is a material reduction in the cable tolls and certainly fills a much needed want.

Vermont Marble Co. Closes Down For Season

The marble quarry of the Vermont Marble Works, at Tokeen and Skyros have closed down for the winter, according to all reports the season at both camps has been very successful. A number of boys from the camps arrived in on the Uncle Dan last Monday and the Senator is due at Tokeen today to pick up the remainder and take them to Seattle. The boys coming here were Knut Anderson, G. Roberts, Victor Klose, R. P. Worthington, Ed. Lynch, Ed. Morgan, from Tokeen and L. P. Hamilton, Fred Bailey, and Kurt Kuhnert from Skyros.

Hold A Salvation Army Congress Here

Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton, of the Salvation Army arrived on the Princess last Tuesday morning and since have been holding a Congress here among the workers from the different camps of Southeastern Alaska. About seventy delegates attending.

In an interview, Commissioner Sowton states: "My trip to Alaska has been very successful and very pleasant. In my conference of the three days I have held many delightful meetings, and I feel that we have materially strengthened the Army work in Alaska as we have had fourteen conversions since the conference started. I see a great future for the Army work in Alaska and I shall try to make these conferences an annual affair."

Commissioner Sowton's home is in Winnipeg and he has charge of the Salvation Army of Northern Canada and Alaska. Commissioner Sowton is a man of wide experience having been in the Army work for thirty-two years. He speaks five different languages fluently, and is a man of pleasant personality. Commissioner Sowton is a lecturer at night and the effort was made to have him deliver an address here but owing to the fact that he was forced to leave the Princess tonight he was unable to do so.

Why Not A Public Library In Wrangell?

For some time the Editor has studied the question of a Public Library for the town of Wrangell. It is certainly a badly needed institution, and the matter was brought to a head the first of the week by a public spirited lady offering a donation of some seventy books for that purpose. There is nothing that will do more good for our little city than that, and as we now have a chance to get a good start lets get busy and see if it can not be done. Let us know what you think of it.

Uncle Sam's Warning To The Warriors Of All Nations You May Need Us By and By

By Prof. Geo. H. Edson

There is War, War, War, don't you hear the cannons roar,
In almost every Nation it is knocking at their door.
But Uncle Sam is standing off, to fight you he won't try.
Now remember what I tell you, boys, you may need us by and by.

Oh you will need us by and by, and you see the reason why,
Now don't try to insult us for your power we defy.

With your wives and children gathered round and with hunger they all cry,

Now when the war is over you may need us by and by.

All Europe, they are raging, but the Germans will not yield
They fight the French and English and they drive them from the field,

With powerfull Zeppelins flying o'er like eagles in the sky,

But as you fly just pass us by, you may need us by and by.

Oh you may need us by and by and you know the reason why,
For when this war is over with starvation you may cry.

Now respect our flag when meeting and our boats just pass them by.

Now keep your war away from here for you will need us by and by.

Now Uncle Sam, God bless him, with tall hat and beard so grey,

Is standing back and looking on and not a word will say.

With store house full and Peace at home and Old Glory floats on high.

Now don't insult, just pass him up, you may need us by and by.

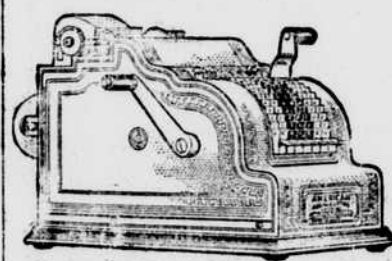

Oh you may need us by and by when your wives and children cry,

With hunger and starvation they will fade away and die,

With store house that is empty and well that has gone dry.
Now don't butt in, just pass us up for you may need us by
and by.

FOOLED THE STUDENTS.

A Clever Hoax That Was Perpetrated at Harvard University.

Richard Washburn Child, the novelist, when at Harvard university was the originator of a joke which has become perpetuated in the university. The Bookman describes the incident as follows:

"While an undergraduate at Harvard Mr. Child happened to be, among other things, one of the board of editors of the Lampoon. The Crimson, the Harvard undergraduate daily, had announced that it would print no edition on Memorial day, 1901. At Mr. Child's suggestion the Lampoon issued a fake number of the Crimson, delicately enough caricatured to deceive all but the most observant readers.

"The appearance of the college paper was accurately reproduced, even to certain typographical errors for which the Crimson had been notorious, but the contents were such that the whole Cambridge community was for a time in turmoil. Information that the janitor of one of the college laboratories had upset a jar of microbes and that all those who had been near the laboratory should report at once to the college doctor; that so-and-so of the crew squad had rowed himself out of his shell, but had reached shore without ill effects; and that the president and fellows of Harvard college had decided not to offer President McKinley an honorary degree was given with the

Get the habit, the Rink.

When a person reads the average run of letters received in a mail, one would think that most of them were drilled in the same school of letter writing but when we run across an exception it is worthy of notice. We think we have one here that is an exception:

Mr. Editor:

This is not a Shakespearian effort or a T.R.'s routine, nor is it a white Hope's ambition for the lime light (?), its merely that I became diseased with the desire to enroll as a subscriber for your esteemed paper-- The Sentinel I think you call it-- for a period of three months, beginning with the last week of November.

That the end will justify the means is vastly obvious as Mr. Bjorge is the fall-guy, you'll collect from him the amount that your entertaining and intellectual Sentry for three months is worth,

Yours very Truly,

Axsel Stenvik.

From Nova Scotia a trip was made to Boston where two days were spent and then to New York City where they visited for two days with friends and then to Buffalo where a few days were spent with Mr. John Kuhn formerly of Wrangell and Mrs. Dr. Dort, mother of Walter Dort, who is well known here. The Grant's seen several Wrangellites in Frisco among them the Schotts. On the way home a week was spent at Seattle and then a stop of two days at Vancouver and then home. The Grants announce the time of their lives and a trip never to be forgotten. Mr. and Mrs. Grant have several tokens which were given to them on their trip and chief among them are two beautiful rugs, and also two large covers all of which are hand worked and something certainly to be appreciated.

We Got That Duck All Right

We want to acknowledge right here that it was a frame up, that hunting story we printed last week about Sam Cunningham, and that he is just about the best duck hunter that there is in Wrangell, and the informant that gave us the story had better not come in the Sentinel Office or show up at the Central. Anyway the Editor got the duck.

His Great Scheme.

"Yes, this is a wonderful country, but I'd hate to live here. You say two tornadoes have swept through this region since you bought the ranch?" "Yes, in plain sight of my house." "Great Scott! And you are going to stay here?" "I guess yes. I'm going to stick here and make my everlasting fortune." "How?" "I've got a motion picture machine all ready for the next one."--Chicago Tribune.

His Offense.

"Exceeding the limit!" cried Dawson. "Why, judge, your roads around here are so rotten a man couldn't go faster than ten miles an hour without endangering his life." "That's the pint," said the justice of the peace. "You've exceedin' the limit of safety, and we find ye guilty of attempting suicide. Ten dollars, if ye please."--Harper's Weekly.
